BYLAWS of the CENTRAL FLORIDA CHAPTER of ATD

(Approved 9-11-17)

ARTICLE I – NAME AND PURPOSE

Section A: Chapter name and Offices

The name of this organization shall be the Central Florida Chapter of the Association for Talent Development, (ATD Central Florida Chapter). The registered office of the chapter shall be located in the State of Florida.

Section B: Affiliation with the National Association

The Chapter is an affiliate of the American Society for Training and Development (“ASTD”), which is doing business under the trade name Association for Talent Development (ATD) (referred to herein as the “Association” or “ATD”), a non-profit educational society exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The Association and its Chapters are not organized for profit, and no part of their net earnings shall benefit any member or private individual, except for payment or reasonable compensation for services rendered.

Section C: Governance and Management of Chapter

The chapter shall be governed and managed by a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The Board of Directors shall set policies within the limits prescribed by these bylaws.

Section D: Purpose

The Chapter is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended, and may make expenditures for one or more of these purposes.

The chapter Mission is to “Inform, Involve and Inspire.”

Without limiting or expanding the foregoing, the chapter’s specific purpose shall be:

1. Connection and Engagement – Bring people together, live and virtually, who share a common passion for developing self and others.
2. Professional Development – Offer affordable, approachable live and virtual learning content and experiences that develop knowledge, skills and competencies, rooted in the ATD Competency Model Body of Knowledge, in an engaging and interactive way.

3. Service to the Community – Identify opportunities and invest time, talent and resources to serve the local geographic area by leveraging the core knowledge, skills and competencies of membership to “create a world that works better.”

Section E: Equal Opportunity

The chapter offers equal opportunity to all eligible members, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, political affiliation, veteran status, and physical or mental impairment.

Section F: Political Activities

The chapter shall not devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, and shall not advocate or campaign for legislation or a defeat of proposed legislation. The chapter shall not directly or indirectly participate in, including the publishing or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Section G: Inurement

No part of the net earnings of the Chapter shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, employees, or other private persons, except that the Chapter shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of IRC Section 501(c)(3) purposes.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

Section A: Eligibility

1. Membership in the chapter is open to those professionals who have interests in the three elements of the chapter Purpose stated in Article I, Section D, of these bylaws; are interested in advancing the objectives of the chapter and the Association; and subscribe to and are qualified under these bylaws. A chapter member in good standing is one who meets the requirements for membership stated in this Section, and whose dues are fully paid for the membership year.

2. Each member in good standing shall have a vote and full membership rights.

Section B: Dues

1. Dues, fees, and terms of chapter membership will be set by the Executive Committee.

2. Dues are entirely for the use of the local chapter.

3. Chapter membership is not transferable.

Section C: Fees

1. Fees and terms for chapter events will be set by the Executive Committee.

2. Fees are entirely for the use of the local chapter.

Section D: Involvement Application

Any person desiring involvement in the chapter shall complete the prescribed involvement information form on the chapter website. Such applications shall be subject to consideration by the Executive Committee.

Section E: Suspension or Termination of Membership

1. The Executive Committee may, by a two-thirds vote of those present, suspend or terminate the membership of any individual for nonpayment of monies owed the chapter until all monies due have been paid, or for actions or behavior in violation of these bylaws, or deemed detrimental to the best interests of the chapter.

2. Suspension or termination of membership will be considered at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. Written notice of, and rationale for, proposed suspension or termination shall be mailed and/or e-mailed to Board Members, and the member concerned, at least twenty (20) calendar days prior to the meeting.
3. Any motion for suspension or termination must be made by an elected board member, based on personal knowledge, official chapter records, or statement signed by no fewer than five (5) chapter members in good standing.

4. Before action of suspension or termination, the member will have an opportunity to be heard in writing by the Executive Committee.

Board Structure

ARTICLE III – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section A: Full Board

1. The Full Board shall consist of the Executive Committee, Vice Presidents, Directors and other designated members appointed by the President.

2. The duties of the non-voting board members (Directors) shall be to advise the Executive Committee and to oversee their assigned areas of responsibility.

Section B: Duties and Responsibilities

1. The management of the affairs of the chapter shall be vested in the Board of Directors. It shall be the duty of the Board to carry out the objectives and purposes of the chapter, and to this end it may exercise all powers of the chapter.

2. The duties of the Board shall Include, but not be limited to: establishing policy for the operation of the chapter; approving the strategic plan, the annual plan, and the budget; approving categories of membership; authorizing committees of the chapter; and performing other functions as appropriate for the Board of Directors.

Section C: Membership

1. The Board of Directors will consist of ten (10) voting Executive Committee members (officers), elected from among chapter members in good standing as specified in Article II of these bylaws, and any Directors appointed by the President.

2. If approved by the Executive Committee, Co-Vice Presidents may oversee one area of responsibility.

3. Officers shall be elected annually, and shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are chosen and duly installed.
4. Executive Officers shall be the President, President-Elect, Past President, Vice President of Communication, Vice President of Finance, Vice President of Technology, Vice President of Engagement, Vice President of Member Services, Vice President of Program Operations, and Vice President of Professional Development, as determined by these bylaws.

5. All Officers and Directors will have position descriptions approved by the Executive Committee, listing the duties and responsibilities of each position. Position descriptions for officers will be made available to chapter members and potential Board members at least thirty (30) days prior to scheduled elections, and reviewed annually.

Section D: Qualifications

1. Persons seeking to serve on the Board of Directors must be chapter members in good standing as specified in these bylaws.

2. Board officers are required to maintain membership in the National Association for the duration of their Board tenure.

Section E: Election of Executive Committee Members

1. With the approval of the Executive Committee, the President-Elect will form a Nominating Committee of up to five (5) members. The committee will include the President-Elect, the Past President, and up to three (3) chapter members in good standing not currently serving in elected positions.

2. The Nominating Committee will seek the input of the Board of Directors, and will call for nominations from all active members in July via e-mail and at the July chapter meeting.

3. The Nominating Committee will present a slate of qualified candidates to the membership via e-mail, and the Executive Committee will be elected by a majority of chapter members voting via an electronic ballot prior to the end of September.

4. Newly elected Officers and Board Members will be presented to the members at the next chapter program following the close of elections.

Section F: Terms
1. Board Officers shall be elected to serve terms of one (1) year, and may stand for re-election to the same board position no more than one additional year in order to allow movement within the Board positions.

2. The President and President-elect shall not directly succeed themselves in office if they have completed a full term.

3. The Past-president serves for one additional year following his/her term in office.

Section G: Board Officer Roles

1. President. As the chief executive officer of the chapter, the President is responsible for managing the chapter in accordance with these bylaws and the laws of the State of Florida.

The President presides at, and sets the agenda for, meetings of the Board of Directors, Executive Committee and membership meetings, except as noted in Article VII of these bylaws; and oversees the management of the chapter.

The President shall appoint all committees and be an ex-officio member of all committees.

The President is responsible for the overall coordination, and ensures timely submission, of CARE to the National Association.

The President is responsible for coordination and development of the chapter's Strategic Plan.

Actively manages all strategic partnerships for the chapter.

2. President-Elect. The President-Elect acts for the President in the President's absence at all meetings of the Chapter, of the Executive Committee, and of the Full Board.

The President-Elect has a three-year commitment to the chapter--the first year as President-Elect, the second year as President, and the third as Immediate-Past President.

Works closely with the President on all matters that involve strategic planning and CARE.

Serves as the Director of the Nominating Committee, and facilitates planning in preparation for term as President.
Performs other duties as requested by the President.

3. Past-President. The Past-President supports and acts as an advisor/counsel to the incumbent President and Executive Board, as needed.

Serves as a Board member liaison with the Presidents Circle of Past-Presidents, and becomes a member of that group.

Coordinates with the President, and ensures submission of annual ATD CARE.

Serves as a special assignments coordinator for the President.

Coordinates revisions of the Chapter Operational Guidelines with the Chapter Administrator and President, as needed.

4. Vice President of Communication. The VP of Communication shall plan, coordinate, and evaluate the production of the website, social media and all chapter communication and marketing initiatives.

Provide communication to government, non-profit, public and professional groups in order to promote the chapter, chapter programs and activities.

Distributes proposed By-Law changes to Members for comment and a vote, as needed.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

Develops strategies for chapter communications and related projects and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

5. Vice President of Finance. The VP of Finance shall prepare all budgets, collect all dues and assessments, make all disbursements, and shall keep such financial records current and up-to-date in a timely manner, as may be required by the Executive Committee.

Provides monthly financial reports to the Board.

Submits financial records for audit when required by the Executive Committee, and shall deliver them to his/her successor upon retirement from office.

Provides financial reports to the membership at regular meetings as requested by the President.
Develops strategies for chapter financials and reports and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

6. Vice President of Engagement. The VP of Engagement manages the overall membership engagement function including the design and implementation of programs that broaden membership engagement, increasing membership by an identified goal, and retaining current members. This role promotes both local chapter and national membership, mentorship, community involvement, and ATD certification programs.

Coordinates engagement activities, student outreach, mentoring forum, certification program awareness & study groups, and community outreach activities.

Develops strategies for member engagement, retention, and planning and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

7. Vice President of Member Services. The VP of Member Services shall maintain a database of members, past members, and potential members, coordinate placement of chapter volunteers, and administer the annual member survey.

Coordinates new member orientations/onboarding activities, new board member orientations/onboarding activities, volunteer recruiting and placement, and execution of annual member survey.

Develops strategies for member retention, recruitment, planning, and survey and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

8. Vice President of Professional Development. The VP of Professional Development shall plan, implement and evaluate programs/events, workshops, conferences and SIG’s (special interest groups) designed to assist members in their professional development.
Ensures coordination of program content - topics, presenters, and facilitation of chapter events.

Ensures programs are balanced, based on the ATD Competency model, and meet annual CARE requirements.

Develops strategies for professional development and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

9. Vice President of Program Operations. The VP of Program Operations shall manage the logistical functions of all chapter events designed to assist members in their professional development.

Ensures coordination, delivery and registration needs for all chapter programs and events.

Develops strategies for program logistics and execution and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

9. Vice President of Technology. The VP of Technology is responsible to identify, implement and maintain a fully functional website with content, features and other technologies that will support board goals and improve member services.

Ensures website and other chapter technologies are functioning and branded according to ATD guidelines.

Develops strategies for website maintenance and reports monthly to the Executive Committee.

Oversees the functions and operation of committees under their area of responsibility.

11. All officers shall assume additional responsibilities as appropriate for the needs of the Chapter.

Section H: Conduct of Chapter Business
1. A majority of voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. Should a quorum not be present, those members present may adjourn until a quorum is present.

2. The act of the majority of Board members present at a meeting where a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board unless a greater proportion is required by law or these bylaws.

3. Absent board members may not vote by proxy votes.

Section I: Board Meetings

The Board of Directors will normally meet monthly. The date of Board meetings will be announced at least thirty (30) days in advance, and the exact time and place of all Board meetings will be announced to all Board members at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the meeting.

The President may propose an electronic Board meeting, and chapter business may be so conducted if this format is approved in advance by a majority of the Executive Committee.

Section J: Board Attendance

1. Attendance shall be in person except under extenuating circumstances in which the President may permit virtual participation by any and/or all Officer(s).

2. Failure to attend three (3) consecutive and duly called meetings of the Board of Directors will be sufficient cause for the Executive Committee to consider replacing a voting Board member under the provisions of these Bylaws.

Section K: Board Member Removal

1. The Board of Directors may, by two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee, suspend or terminate a member of the Board for actions or behavior in violation of these bylaws, or which are deemed detrimental to the best interests of the chapter.

2. Suspension or termination of Board members will be considered at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Executive Committee. Written notice of, and rationale for the proposed suspension or termination shall be mailed and emailed to Executive Committee members, including the individual concerned, at least twenty-one (21) calendar days prior to the meeting.
3. Any motion for suspension or termination must be made by an Executive Committee member, based on personal knowledge, official chapter records, or statement signed by no fewer than three (3) chapter members in good standing.

4. Before action of suspension or termination, the Board member will have an opportunity to be heard by the Executive Committee.

Section L: Board Vacancies

1. When a vacancy occurs for an Executive Committee position, the President may, with the approval of the majority of the Executive Committee, appoint a replacement from among chapter members in good standing to serve the balance of the term.

2. Should the office of Presidency be vacated due to the resignation, incapacity, or death of the President, the President-Elect will assume the position and its responsibilities. If both the offices of President and President-Elect become vacant simultaneously, the Past-President will convene the Board of Directors to select a member of that body to assume the duties and responsibilities of the President until a special election by the membership can be held. Approval of an interim President will require a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section A: Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall consist of the elected Officers and the Immediate Past-President of the Chapter.

Section B: Election of Officers

Board officers shall be elected at a regular meeting or by electronic mail annually prior to the end of September from a slate presented by the Nominating Committee and/or by nominations from members, and shall assume their respective offices on the first day of January.

Section C: Duties of the Executive Committee

1. To determine the policies of the Chapter within the limits prescribed by the Bylaws of the Chapter and the Bylaws of ATD.

2. To counsel the President in the conduct of his/her office.
3. To make provisions for the auditing of chapter records as it may deem proper for the protection of the funds, and of the purpose of the Chapter.

4. To manage Chapter business.

5. To fill a vacancy occurring during the term of any Officer or Director of the chapter by appointing another Officer or Director to serve for the unexpired portion of the term, except that a vacancy in the office of President shall be filled as provided by Article III, Section L, Sub-section 2.

Section D: Executive Committee Meetings

The Executive Committee shall normally meet monthly, or as necessary for effective chapter management.

Article V - FINANCIAL REVIEW

Section A

1. A financial review will be conducted annually and more frequently if circumstances dictate, by a Financial Review Committee appointed by the President and approved by the Executive Committee, with findings reported to the Board of Directors.

2. Results of the financial reviews will be published and made available to the chapter membership as soon as is practicable, but no later than ninety (90) days into the following fiscal year starting in January.

3. The Financial Review Committee shall consist of the President-Elect, the Immediate-Past President, and up to three chapter members in good standing who have not served as a Board member for at least two years. The Vice President of Finance shall not be eligible to serve on this committee, but will provide the committee any and all records necessary to complete a review of chapter finances.

ARTICLE VI – COMMITTEES

1. Committees may be established or disbanded by the Executive Committee.

2. Committees are subject to the oversight and direction of the Board, or those authorized by that body.

3. The President shall, before January 1st, appoint all committee Directors necessary to support the chapter.
4. A Director will be appointed for each committee. The respective duties of each appointed committee shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

5. The President shall be empowered to appoint additional committees as needed during the year.

Article VI - SPECIAL MEETINGS OF THE CHAPTER

1. Special meetings of the chapter to deal with unusual circumstances or events may be called by the President, a quorum of the Executive Committee, or upon the receipt of a petition signed by at least fifteen (15%) of chapter members in good standing.

2. The call for a special meeting must specify the reason for the meeting. Business at the special meeting will be limited solely to the topic specified. Notification will be made to all chapter members at least fourteen (14) business days prior to the meeting.

3. Twenty-five (25%) of chapter members in good standing will constitute a quorum required for the conduct of business at a special meeting, and will be sufficient to carry a motion, provided that such a motion complies with these Bylaws.

4. The President shall preside at a Special Meeting of the Chapter, unless the President has a conflict of interest regarding the reason such a meeting has been called. In that case, the body (the Executive Committee or chapter members) calling the Special Meeting shall select an individual to preside at the meeting by quorum vote.

5. The minutes of a special meeting will be kept by the Director of Chapter Administration and published or made available to all chapter members within seven (7) calendar days following the meeting.

ARTICLE VII - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES

Parliamentary procedures at all meetings of the Association shall be in accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order, or as determined by the president.

ARTICLE VIII - CHAPTER MEETINGS

Section 1: Meetings
Regular meetings of the chapter shall be held as determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IX - INDEMNIFICATION

The Board of Directors may seek and maintain such indemnification to the fullest extent available under the laws of the State of Florida to protect the chapter, chapter members, board members, officers, employees, and agents.

ARTICLE X – OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES

All chapter business and standing rules may be adopted, amended, or repealed at any regular meeting of the Executive Committee by a two-thirds vote of those members present. A quorum must be met to vote.

ARTICLE XI - AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS (OPERATIONAL GUIDELINES)

1. Amendments to these bylaws may only be initiated by the Executive Committee, or by a petition signed by at least fifteen (15%) of chapter members in good standing.

2. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Chapter's Vice President of Communication through the Executive Committee.

3. Notice of any potential change must be published and distributed to the membership at the next regular meeting, on the website, or by electronic mail.

4. Amendments must be approved by a majority of chapter members in good standing voting at a designated meeting or by electronic mail.

5. Notice of approved changes to these Bylaws shall be published or distributed to all chapter members no later than thirty (30) calendar days following adoption.

ARTICLE XII - DISSOLUTION OF CHAPTER AND LIQUIDATION OF ASSETS

The chapter may be dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of chapter members in good standing. Upon dissolution of the chapter, and after all of its liabilities and obligations have been paid, satisfied and discharged, or adequate provisions made therefore, all of the chapter's remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of sections 501(c)(3) and 170 (c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended.
